

DIPLMACY MAJOR

TEACHER: RAVIT BAR

The Diplomacy Major is a program designed for students eager to engage with the world of global communication and effective storytelling. Conducted in English, this major emphasizes the development of critical skills for navigating the field of diplomacy and international relations:

Interpersonal and intercultural Communication: Students will learn how to effectively communicate, focusing on building trust, negotiation, and conflict resolution. Students will understand, respect, and adapt to the communication styles and cultural practices of different societies and manage diplomatic relations across diverse cultural contexts.

Visual and Media Literacy Students will gain the ability to interpret and analyze visual content and visual media, building a deep understanding of how visuals influence perception and communication. Students will develop the ability to critically evaluate news sources, media messages, and the role of mass media in shaping public opinion and international relations.

Storytelling: The program emphasizes the power of narrative to shape opinions, build relationships, and influence policy. Students will learn how to craft compelling stories that resonate with diverse audiences.

Photojournalism: Students will explore the intersection of journalism and diplomacy, focusing on the ethical and impactful use of photography to convey stories of global significance. A Sumeet Day will be held in this subject. Participation is mandatory.

Admission Requirements:

- English Proficiency: Candidates must demonstrate proficiency in English through an interview, where they will be assessed on their spoken English skills. They will be required to deliver a 3-minute presentation in English (teacher will provide a list of topics).
- Academic Performance: Behavior: very good (85+) Academic Achievements: average of 90.
